

Social studies

Grade 1

4th of July worksheet: happy birthday, USA

Learn about 1776 and American symbols, then count the fireworks.

I can name American symbols and tell why we celebrate July 4.

1

American symbols

Draw a line from each symbol to what it is.

☐

American flag

☐

Bald eagle

☐

Liberty Bell

☐

Statue of Liberty

A. A big bird that stands for our country.

B. An old bell with a crack.

C. A tall statue with a torch.

D. Red, white and blue with 50 stars.

2

True or false

Circle the right answer.

1. The 4th of July is the birthday of the United States.
2. The Declaration of Independence is from 1776.
3. The 4th of July is in winter.
4. The flag has 50 stars.

True

False

True

False

True

False

True

False

3

Count the fun

Count each group and write the number.

=

=

=

=

4

Fireworks math

Write the answer.

1. 6 fireworks + 4 fireworks = _____

2. 8 stars - 3 stars = _____

3. 5 + 5 + 5 = _____

5

Fast facts

Write the answer.

1. 3 + 4 = _____

2. 8 + 2 = _____

3. $9 - 4 =$ _____

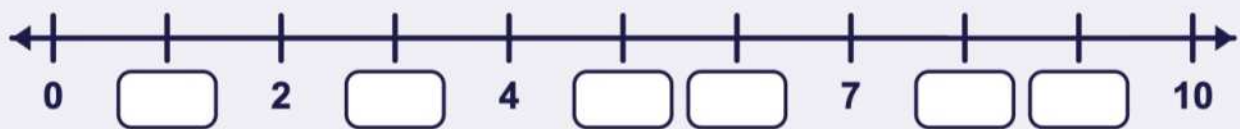

4. $6 + 6 =$ _____

5. $10 - 7 =$ _____

6. $5 + 8 =$ _____

6 Parade line

Write the missing numbers.

7 More or less?

Write $>$, $<$ or $=$ in each circle.

6

9

$4 + 4$

8

10

$3 + 5$

$12 - 2$

11

8 Party problems

Circle the right answer.

1. In which month is the birthday of the United States?

A July

B May

C December

2. Tom sees 5 red and 4 blue fireworks. How many fireworks?

A 8

B 9

C 10

3. There are 7 flags. 2 blow away. How many are left?

A 4

B 9

C 5

9

Draw a celebration

Draw how you would celebrate the 4th of July. Draw 5 fireworks in the sky.

How did it go?

Made with

Social studies

Grade 1

Answer key

4th of July worksheet: happy birthday, USA

Learn about 1776 and American symbols, then count the fireworks.

I can name American symbols and tell why we celebrate July 4.

1

American symbols

Draw a line from each symbol to what it is.

D

American flag

A

Bald eagle

B

Liberty Bell

C

Statue of Liberty

●

A. A big bird that stands for our country.

●

B. An old bell with a crack.

●

C. A tall statue with a torch.

●

D. Red, white and blue with 50 stars.

2

True or false

Circle the right answer.

1. The 4th of July is the birthday of the United States.
2. The Declaration of Independence is from 1776.
3. The 4th of July is in winter.
4. The flag has 50 stars.

True

False

True

False

True

False

True

False

3

Count the fun

Count each group and write the number.

=

6

=

4

=

3

=

8

4

Fireworks math

Write the answer.

1. 6 fireworks + 4 fireworks = 10

2. 8 stars - 3 stars = 5

3. 5 + 5 + 5 = 15

5

Fast facts

Write the answer.

1. 3 + 4 = 7

2. 8 + 2 = 10

3. $9 - 4 =$ 5

4. $6 + 6 =$ 12

5. $10 - 7 =$ 3

6. $5 + 8 =$ 13

6 Parade line

Write the missing numbers.

7 More or less?

Write $>$, $<$ or $=$ in each circle.

6

$<$

9

$4 + 4$

$=$

8

10

$>$

$3 + 5$

$12 - 2$

$<$

11

8 Party problems

Circle the right answer.

1. In which month is the birthday of the United States?

A July

B May

C December

2. Tom sees 5 red and 4 blue fireworks. How many fireworks?

A 8

B 9

C 10

3. There are 7 flags. 2 blow away. How many are left?

A 4

B 9

C 5

9

Draw a celebration

Draw how you would celebrate the 4th of July. Draw 5 fireworks in the sky.

How did it go?

Made with 